SUMMARY

I graduated from the Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur, which is an elite engineering school in India, and am interested in the field of computing. I am proficient in C, C++, Java, Javascript, jQuery, Node.js, React.js, and some other web languages. I am a tinkering kind of person, so any problem that comes up to me can't be a problem anymore, and whatever the timeframe to accomplishing that, I am ready for it because of my persistence and intellect.
