

WALUGA SUPHABORN RAT

I am currently a Master's Degree Student and also working as a teacher assistant. I have been working in the field of education and translation since 2014.

I am an optimistic and dedicated person. I love learning something new, either good or bad, it's a lesson and experience that will develop me to be a better person. Punctuality is very important to me so I have high responsibility and always on time. I am friendly and get along with people very well. I work well under pressure and enjoy being in an international environment.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

I've worked with various types of jobs that are related to English language. I have mastered translation skills and teaching skills since I have been working in both fields for several years
